Caravan Of Stars Planned To Appear On Campus Nov. 15

The Dick Clark Caravan of Stars, an internationally known rock and roll group, will appear on campus November 15, Larry Bates, Student Government president, announced Monday.

The performance of the stars, sponsored by the Student Government, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Fieldhouse with The We Five, Paul Revere and the Raiders, The Byrds and Bo Diddley among the featured performers.

"Students are advised to get their tickets early because we expect a sellout," Mr. Bates said. The price of tickets is $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door. Tickets can be purchased from student senators, the Student Government office, The Collegiate Shop in Martin or Bennett's Mens Store in Union City.

We Five are known by their record "You Were On My Mind" and have been seen on the Ed Sullivan Show.

"Stepping Out" is a popular record by Paul Revere and the Raiders. They have made appearances on the television program Where The Action Is.

The Byrds are known by their recent recording "Turn, Turn, Turn" and "Mr. Tambourine Man." The Byrds have performed on Hullabaloo and Shindig, television programs.

The "Bo Diddley beat" will be present at the performance by the appearance of Bo Diddley, known for his record "Bo Diddley" and his album "Gun-Slinger."

Other stars to appear at the performance are Dale Wright, Man of Action, and The Results.

Nov. 1 - 12 Scheduled For Pre-Registration

Pre-registration for winter quarter began November 1 and will end at 5 p.m. November 12, Henry Allison, registrar, announced.

"Any student currently enrolled who plans to continue winter quarter is requested to pre-register during this time.

Failure to do this means that the student will be required to be at the end of the registration line," Mr. Allison stated.

Nelson And Neal To Appear In First On-Campus Recital

Nelson and Neal, the two-piano team which joined the University staff this year, will play their first on-campus recital Friday, November 12, at 8 p.m. in the Music Building Auditorium.

New Dorm Hours, SG Yearly Budget Proposed Tuesday

A proposed change in dormitory hours for women and the yearly budget were the topics of business at the Student Government meeting Tuesday.

The council voted unanimously for the resolution that the dorm hours for women to be extended. The hours on Friday night would be extended from 11:00 to 12:00; Saturday nights, from 12:00 to 12:30; and Sunday nights remain the same. The number of nights out would be the same, but the time for nights out would be extended from 10:15 to 10:45. This must go before the Administrative Board for a decision.

The budget resolution was made by Larry Bates, president of Student Government. He proposed two divisions of the budget: one called entertainment and the other called the general budget.

The entertainment budget will operate out of the profits from big name entertainments, beauty review and dances. The general budget would operate out of the Student Government share of the Student Activities fees. A budget of $2,500 would be needed. The allotments would be $225 for the telephone expense, $275 for secretarial help, $1500 for general administration, and $500 for miscellaneous expenses.

Student Directory To Be Distributed

The Student-Faculty Directory will be distributed Friday, according to Wayne Tansil, director of public relations.

The directory will give the name, classification, local residence and telephone number and home address and telephone number of the student.

For the faculty members, it will give the name, department or subject field, campus telephone number and Martin address and telephone number.

This year's edition will contain 50 pages as compared to 40 pages last year because of the increased number of students and faculty members.

Copy was prepared by the Public Relations Office, and printing is being done in offset by Lanzer Printing Company of Union City.

This is the only publication on campus that gives both the campus telephone numbers and address and home address and telephone number of the students.

The directory will be distributed to all administrative personnel, department heads and for the first time to all faculty members.

Copies are also available to local merchants, business people and service organizations including telephone and telegraph companies, Mr. Tansil said.

Processed Midterm Grades In Mail Boxes Friday

Mid-term grades are being processed and will be inserted in campus mail boxes by Friday of this week.

In their new association with the University as faculty-artist members, Nelson and Neal will continue their annual concert tours. Their service to the public, through the University, will include teachers workshops on campus and throughout other parts of the state, numerous lectures and demonstration lessons as well as personal auditions and consultations with campus music students, and a special festival during which talented high school students may be auditioned and advised.

Their recital program on November 12 will include works by Mendelssohn, Shostakovich, Brahms, Reval, and Liszt. It is open to the public free of charge, and there will be a reception directly following the concert.

The husband-wife duo-pianists are veterans at concertizing, having performed over 1000 concerts around the world.

Mrs. Neal first achieved world-wide recognition in the musical world through a performance of the Mendelssohn D Minor Concerto on a BBC broadcast while she was still a child prodigy in her native Australia. Eugene Ormandy, the conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra later sponsored her journey to the United States and her enrollment in the Curtis Institute of Music, where she became a student of Rudolph Serkin.

Mr. Neal, a native of Paris, Tennessee, attended Birmingham-Southern College and the University of Michigan. He enrolled at the Curtis Institute as a scholarship student of Isabelle Vengerova, and it was at Curtis that the friendship was formed which grew into marriage and the formation of the Nelson and Neal two-piano team.

Vanguard Will Present Japanese Film Monday

On November 8 at 8:00 p.m. Vanguard Theater and Sigma Tau Delta will present the Japanese film Rasha-mon, in Room 112 of the Ad building.

This film won an Academy Award as the Best Foreign Film and the Grand Prize at the Venice Film Festival. It is woven around four contradictory tales concerning a brutal attack by a bandit upon a merchant and his wife as they are traveling through a forest. The crime is enacted four times, resulting in four different stories: the bandit's version of the incident, the wife's version, the dead merchant's story as told through a medium, and the version as told by a witness.

Buffet Supper Given For Student Senators

Vice-president and Mrs. Paul Meek gave a buffet supper for the student senators November 2.

Approximately 34 senators attended and also Miss Flower and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Watkins, Mr. Allison, Dean and Mrs. H. B. Smith. The meal was climaxed by a gift to Mrs. Meek of a silver serving tray and a speech by Vice-president Meek. He emphasized the point that the way the student senators could best benefit themselves, their friends and their school was by becoming involved in their responsibilities.

Bo Diddley, famous for the Bo Diddley beat, will be among the acts to perform here on November 15.

Support Big Name Talent!

Academics and entertainment are instrumental to education. They must be blended in the proper proportions on any campus. Lately, there seems to have been a lapse of the latter—especially concerning participation when nationally known entertainers come here.

Sponsoring major entertainment personalities for your pleasure is a hard and expensive undertaking. Students constantly clamor that they desire more professional entertainment. Yet, all too often, when such stars appear on campus, the audience is rarely "jammed" or "packed" or full, to use a shorter cliché.

When attendance is lacking at these functions, the sponsoring body loses money. In less than two weeks the campus will again have the opportunity to attend and enjoy professional performances. After all, the music and antics are especially for you...

Three Students Find Europe Romantic And Interesting

BY NAWASA JONAS

The dream of a trip to Europe came true for three co-eds this past summer. Such story-book names and places as Paris, London, Copenhagen, the Riviera and Barcelona became the exciting reality for three girls.

Evelyn Martin was one of the sixteen girls who went on the Student Tour of Europe from Memphis State under the sponsorship of Dr. Matthews. The tour took five and a half weeks and covered 10 countries and the islands of Corsica and Elba.

The tour followed the usual pattern of visiting the Lourve, Notre Dame and Triumphant Arc in Paris; the Hague in the Netherlands, but deviated to go to Germany's Berlin. One of the interesting points that Evelyn pointed out was the contrast between East and West Berlin. "After crossing at Check Point Charlie, one can see the distinct difference. West Berlin's streets are bustling with people shopping but East Berlin has only a few people on the street and this section is bleak looking." Of course, the one thing people think of when they think of Germany is the Wall. The West Germans have built platforms on the west side, so that they can stand on these and look over into East Berlin and talk with their relatives. "A surprising thing about Germany as that of the rest of Europe is nearly everyone speaks English." The tour was very enlightening culturally. Great pieces of sculpture such as Michaelangelo's David and Pieta were found in Florence, Italy. In the Vatican, which is a separate state of Italy, is found the Cathedral of St. Peter, where the Sistine Chapel is located. Michaelangelo spent four years lying on his back to paint the ceiling of the Chapel. While in Rome, as the Italians say, one can do as the Romans do by throwing pennies into the famous Trevi Fountain -- literally meaning Three Coin's in a fountain.

The rest of the trip was a further fulfillment of romantic ideas and dreams. Bullfights and flamenco dances in Barcelona, Spanish wedding in Toledo and on to Lisbon, Portugal and then home.

Everywhere one goes in Europe, one can't help but find a bit of history in every home and most of all in people's faces. Jane Ellis and Jane Gilbert stayed in England for three weeks this past summer. "No where can one find so much history as in England. It's a mixture of the old and the new. London is very cosmopolitan with its cross section of races. Everyone dresses in his own national costume.

The Beatle-type dresser is not unique. He's accepted and no one notices what anyone else is doing. The Mods and Rockers are one of the scenic views of London. These groups of young people "hang" around Trafalgar Square in London. The main difference is that the Mods wear their hair long but clipped, are clean, and ride scooters. The Rockers, on the other hand wear black leather jackets, hair long and not well-kept and ride motorcycles. To be in the "in" group, one must know the difference.

"Nowhere is life found to be more characteristic of England than in the pubs. Here, colorful old men sit all day drinking beer and ale. They start drinking early on Sunday because the pubs close at 1 p.m. Invariably there is a little old lady with a grey flannel coat, a little hat with flowers who sits in the corner of the pub all day long enjoying a little sherry," said Jane.

Cornwall in Southern England is the English Riviera. It is a part of England that has its own atmosphere and quaintness plus some of the most beautiful country landscapes.

Although nearly all their time was spent in England, one day was spent on a trip to France. "France was the one place in Europe that was openly rude to American." When told by a waiter that he spoke perfect English, they ordered a snack. A snack to the waiter meant one half a chicken cooked in wine, a whole fish for an appetizer and dessert. How's that for a snack?

Europe is a place for adventure, offering a whole realm of different ideas, but yet keeping a close tie to the "new" world and its fast pace while keeping the old world charm.

Job Interviews To Be Scheduled By Two Companies

Representatives from the Phillips 66 Company and Swift and Company will be on campus November 16 and 19, respectively, to interview students for prospective employment.

Jack Dale, manager of the Memphis District for petroleum sales, will interview students graduating fall, winter and spring quarters on behalf of Phillips 66 on November 16.

"Opportunities are available in research, production, sales, or one of a myriad of other facets of the petroleum industry. Interviews are now being scheduled for all majors in the Placement Office," said Lewis Larsen, director of alumni and placement.

On November 19, R.G. Connor, manager of the agricultural-chemical division of Swift, will interview students for territory manager positions with the AgriChem Division.

A B.S. degree, either in agriculture, business or other acceptable fields, is necessary to qualify for the territory manager positions.

Interviews are being scheduled in the Placement Office for students graduating this year.

Grenadiers Cadence Count Incessant Echo On Campus

BY STEPHEN WILLIAMS

The cadence count of the Grenadiers is an incessant echo on campus.

How many times this year has the drill team marched past you on campus shouting the UTMB cadence? Quite frequently, probably.

In addition to Thursday drills the Grenadiers devote extra hours each week to learning and perfecting intricate marching movements.

So far this year the team has represented the University twice. First in the Homecoming parade and second at the football game Saturday, October 30, during the program presentation of the R.O.T.C. sponsors.

On November 11 the drill team will march in Memphis in the Veteran's Day parade. The team's next scheduled event will be participation in a Christmas parade in Dyersburg, Tennessee, on November 22.

This event will be the first of the holiday parades in which the team will take part.

The Grenadiers can be versatile, too. A rock-and-roll cadence count -- A la Hula-balloo -- doesn't disturb them. Members of the team will act as ushers for the Dick Clark Caravan of Stars that will be on campus November 15.

Cadet Captain Jerry Busell, 3-year veteran of the drill team, said "The present team has developed into a good unit faster than any of the previous ones I've had the honor of being a member."

Group Receives 7 Curtain Calls

BY CHARLES HUGHES

The Men of Song, a vocal group featuring Edmund Karl-srud as bass-baritone, appeared in concert in the Music Building November 10.

The other members of the group were Paul Salem, tenor; Carol Alexander, tenor; Bruce Payton, baritone, and Michael Cannon, accompanist.

The group showed much versatility, for they were equally able to present all types of songs from classical to spirituals.

The program was divided into six parts which consisted of classical works, romantic works, Broadway melodies, opera selection, folk songs and spirituals.

The program was not only entertaining and enlightening but such selections as "Why Study" and "How to Solve Domestic Relations" proved very humorous.

The program was attended by approximately 200 people who showed their appreciation of the performance by giving the Men of Song seven curtain calls and who received in turn three encores.

As one student said, "I didn't think I liked concerts, but this was great."

Medical Students Will Meet Nov. 10

Mu Epsilon Delta, local pre-medical fraternity, will hold a meeting November 10 at 7 p.m. in Room 207 of the Engineering-Physical Science Building.

After the business session, the group will go to the Volunteer General Hospital in Martin where it will learn the various steps in preparation for future surgical observation.

At the last meeting in October, plans were discussed for a future blood program, sponsored by MED here.

Hugh Deck was elected student senator and Dr. John Fairless, a local dentist, became an honorary member.

Plans have been made for pre-medical students to attend the open house of the UT Medical Units on November 13 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Those interested may sign up for the trip in Dr. Norman Campbell's office.

This will be followed by the Sonata in B-flat minor by Chopin. The first half of the program will conclude with Le Gibet and Ondine by the French Impressionist, Ravel. The second half of the program will consist of "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Moussorgsky, a colorful set of short pieces, each of which interprets a painting by the painter, Hartmann.

The young pianist, who is Latvian by birth and whose parents now reside in New York City, attended the Curtis Musical Institute High School in Philadelphia. He is beginning his junior year here while furthering his studies with Nelson and Neal and continuing his concert career under the management of the Otto Kapell

Vol wingback Mack Moody (no. 21), drives into the big Northwestern Louisiana line.

Volunteers Dump Demons By Narrow Margin, 19-17

A fired-up Volunteer football team played determined, hands-up football to dump Northwestern Louisiana 19-17 Saturday night.

After jumping ahead 13-1 at halftime, the Vols doggedly held on to win their third straight game. The Demons muffed a chance to win when Wayne Walker's 37-yard field goal attempt with less than four minutes to play went wide.

Northwestern tallied first, midway through the opening quarter, when Gary Pittman culminated a 61-yard drive, scoring from the five.

With 15 seconds left in the quarter, Vol field general Allan Cox hit end Larry Krouse on a 21-yard touchdown toss to tie the score.

The Demons quickly jumped back in front on Wayne Walker's 31-yard field goal with 11:40 left in the half.

Senior end Kenny Dickson blocked and recovered a Walker punt on the NSC 15-yard line; and two plays later, scrappy quarterback Allan Cox sprinted 10-yards for the score to give the Vols a 13-10 lead at the half.

Allan Cox scored his second six-pointer of the night on a sparkling 57-yard jaunt early in the third stanza. A key block by end John Howard sprung Cox loose as the Vols increased their lead to 19-10.

Demon quarterback Don Guidry put NSC back in the ball game early in the fourth period when he scored from the one after hitting Dick Reding on a 28-yard aerial to set up Northwestern's final touchdown.

With their backs against the wall, tailback Howard Finley put the game away on a 35-yard sprint for a Vol first down with only a little over a minute to play.

All smiles following Saturday's victory Coach Robert L. Carroll, said, "It was a sweet one to win. One word can describe Northwestern - powerful."

Volleyball Games To Begin Tuesday

The men's open volleyball intramurals will begin, November 9, in the new Physical Education Building.

Any student may appoint himself manager and select a team of eight to fourteen members. However, the teams must be registered by noon Monday.

All regularly enrolled men students are eligible, but an individual can only play on one team during the tournament.

A match shall consist of the best two out of three 15-point games.

Entrance blanks for the teams can be secured in Room 12 in the new Physical Education Building.

As It Looks From Here

BY BILL BENSON

Those who saw last Saturday night's game undoubtedly must be convinced by now of the caliber of the UTMB football team. The Vols defeated a bigger, stronger and faster Northwestern squad by sheer desire and determination. You might say they beat the devil out of the Demons.

Space does not permit a detailed enumeration of the Vols' performances, but certainly recognition should go to the sparkling play of quarterback Allan Cox. Fine defensive and play by seniors Kenny Dickson and Jim Hammond and the rock-line resistance of tackle Ron Lewellen certainly played an important part in the victory.

This weekend the Vols make the long trip to Troy State College to face the winless Red Wave. Troy's 0-7 record belies the fact that it is a fine ball club. Although Troy has never beaten UTMB, it always seems to play its best against us. Last year, the Vols edged the "Wave" 12-9.

Mental preparation will be an important factor in the outcome of Saturday's game. The Vols must not, and I do not believe they do, take Troy State lightly.

Three Teams Win Touch Football

Yellow team, Black team, and Orange team were winners in the Independent Students Association touch football games Saturday afternoon.

The Yellow team defeated the Red team by a score of 7-0.

The Green team was beaten by the Black team by a score of 13-7.

The Orange team triumphed over the Blue team by accumulating the most total yardage.

Vols To Rough The 'Waves' For Fourth Consecutive Win

With three consecutive wins under their belts the Volunteers travel to Troy, Alabama, to tangle with Troy State's "Red Wave" Saturday night.

Last year the Vols edged Troy 12-9. While the Red Waves have yet to win a game, it always plays best against the Orangemen, and are especially tough at home. The last time the game was down south, UTMB squeezed by for a 7-0 win.

Although they have been utilizing numerous freshmen in an attempt to return to the winning ranks, the Trojans have a core of 22 lettermen returning from last season's squad which compiled a 6-3 mark and finished second in the Alabama Collegiate Conference.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. CST and WCMT will play back the game Sunday afternoon.
